Reading

Read Harry's e-mail.

Hi, Carla

I'm writing this e-mail from my sister Barbara's room. I'm using her computer. She isn't at home right now. She's in the park. She's playing tennis with her friends. She's good at tennis. She can play well. I can't play tennis very well. It's a terrible sport. I don't like it! My favorite sport is volleyball. I can play it quite well. I love playing volleyball on the beach. Do you?

It's Monday today. I usually go to school on Mondays, but there's a vacation today, so we aren't studying. Mom and Dad aren't working today. They're playing cards in the yard right now. My friends Dan and Ricky are at my house today. They're in my room. They're playing chess. They can play very well. I can't play chess at all, so I'm writing to you instead!

It's hot and sunny today. I usually wear jeans, but today I'm wearing shorts and a T-shirt. Is it hot in your town? What are you doing? Call me, or send me a text!

Bye!

Harry
