I love hip-hop and I was enjoying the sounds of PSY! He was performing Gangnam Style live at the Music Radio studio. It was epic! I was dancing round my room (I wasn't doing my homework). Awesome!

Did anyone say they liked classical music? I was listening to a live performance by The Simon Bolivar Youth Orchestra of Venezuela. They were performing at New York's Carnegie Hall. It was on Radio Tune and it was amazing. I'm not a huge classical music fan but this was incredible. Don't you know about them? There are some great videos on YouTube.

PSY is OK but I'm crazy about Jin. I was listening to him last night. Sang Ki, didn't you say you liked him in your last post? He is SO cool. I love the Asian and American influences in his music. His videos are excellent, too. Don't you know him? You soon will!

I'm more into rock. I like my local star, Carly Rae Jepsen. I have all her songs on my tablet. Last night I was listening to my favorite, Call Me Maybe. Do you like her too?
