

1 Listen and write the correct numbers.

2 Read the questions and complete the answers. Use would or wouldn't.

1. Would you like some watermelon?
Yes, _____.
2. Would Michelle like some lamb meatballs?
Yes, _____.
3. Would Arturo like a toasted cheese sandwich?
No, _____.
4. Would your sisters like some noodle soup?
Yes, _____.
5. Would you and your friend like some porridge?
No, _____.

3 Complete the dialogue. Use the words from the box.

I'd like to try would (2x)

Gary: Great! We can make our own dinner tonight! Anything we want!

And I'm hungry!

Larry: I know. What _____ you _____?

Gary: _____ like chicken curry!
3.

Larry: Me, too but it takes time. And I don't know how Mum cooks it.

Gary: Well, _____ you like _____ a toasted cheese sandwich? I see Mum make them all the time.
4. 5.

Larry: Okay. I'll get the bread and cheese. What do we cook it in?

Gary: I don't know. You know what, Larry? Dinner's more fun when Mum is here!

4 Answer the questions. Write sentences.

1. What would you like to eat for breakfast?

2. What would you like to eat for lunch?

3. What new food would you like to try?
