

1 Match the things you learn about in school with the correct subjects. Draw lines.

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------|
| 1. Literature | a. athletics |
| 2. Art | b. democracy |
| 3. P.E. | c. prime numbers |
| 4. Social Science | d. legends |
| 5. English | e. plants |
| 6. Biology | f. murals |
| 7. Maths | g. instruments |
| 8. Music | h. grammar |

2 Complete the sentences. Use the words from the box.

Art English Literature Maths Music P.E. Science Social Science

- Maya is studying myths in her _____ lessons this term.
- We split into groups to work on our democracy projects in our _____ lesson today.
- Mike's _____ class is learning how to multiply and divide numbers.
- They've just finished a unit on mammals in their _____ lesson.
- Scott plays a lot of different sports in his _____ lessons.
- We learnt a lot of new vocabulary in our _____ lesson today.
- They learn about different artists in their _____ lessons.
- Yessenia learns how to play the piano in her _____ lessons.

3 Complete the sentences. Use more, fewer or less.

1. In Biology we learnt that, in general, large animals have _____ predators than small animals.
2. We read a news article about the growing popularity of fish in the UK, so I wasn't surprised to learn that there are _____ fish owners than dog owners.
3. My dad explained that the reason I can't stay up as late as he does is that adults need _____ sleep than children because children are still growing.
4. I asked if our 8-year-old cat was still growing because he gets _____ sleep than anyone, even my baby sister!

4 Rewrite each sentence. Change the comparative form of the adjectives to the superlative.

1. Claire has more books than any of her classmates.

2. Ethan has fewer coins in his coin collection than his friends.

3. I have more homework for my Literature lesson than I do in any other lesson.

4. Jessie has spent less time on his project than any of his classmates.

5 What school subject do you find the most interesting? Why? Write three or four sentences.

